Not sure what version of this you last saw, but I thought I'd pass it along in case it is helpful at all.

Hope this email finds everyone doing well. I wanted to give you all a head's up that we had a good meeting with OMB and other agency stakeholders last Tuesday morning, September 9, 2014. We responded to OMB and other agency comments and sent revised documents to OMB on Friday afternoon, September 12, 2014. For your reading pleasure, I've attached a compare document that present changes in response to interagency review. As you all know, this material is internal and deliberative so please hold it closely. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Thanks.

Attached please find 3 versions of the 40 CFR 192 Draft Proposal:

1. Clean version of the preamble and regulatory text
2. Compare version of the preamble and regulatory text showing changes from the original draft sent to OMN in March 2014 and the current draft.

3. A version of the preamble and regulatory text that includes interagency comments and comment responses.

I will be sending additional emails with the drafts of the economic analysis, technical background document, and response to interagency comments momentarily.

Thanks for your engagement on this rule. It has been a pleasure.
